House Bills 5670-1 (As Introduced)

Topic: Public Employer Residency Requirements
Sponsor: Representatives Young and Johnson
Co-sponsors: Representatives Jackson and Scott
Committee: House Intergovernmental, Urban and Regional Affairs

Date Introduced: January 30, 2008

Date of Summary: January 31, 2008

The bills amend Public Act 212 of 1999 to give more authority to public employers to impose residency requirements. House Bill 5670 allows the City of Detroit to establish residency requirements for its employees. House Bill 5671 strikes the current prohibition against requirements that an individual reside within a specific geographical area or within a specified distance or travel time from his or her place of employment.
